DEATH.
At Bayswater, May 21, ANNE MARGARET WARRIOR WALLACE, widow of the late J. F. Wallace, formerly of Shanghai; aged 58 years.

The publication of this issue commenced at 5.45 p.m.

The China Mail.
HONGKONG, THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1902.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Football.
In the second tie for the Singapore Football Cup, the 50th Co., R.A., defeated the Royal Engineers by 3 goals to 1. The two Artillery companies now meet in the final.

Weihaui.
The Hon. J. H. Stewart-Lockhart, Commissioner at Weihaui, has appointed Messrs. L. F. Bridges (Chairman), D.
Clark and G. A. Ferguson an Advisory Council to advise him regarding local affairs for the island of Liu Kung-tao.

Lo Feng-luh.

H.E. Sir Chih Chen Lofeng-luh, the retiring Chinese Minister in London, Lady Lofeng-luh and children, accompanied by their suite, are proceeding to Shanghai per German mail steamer Kunsho, due here about the 9th July.

Cholera on Shipboard.

The Singapore Free Press of the 11th inst. says: "The Lovent arrived here yesterday with 788 coolies on board, from China Ports for the Straits. On the voyage down ten men and two women developed cholera, and as they were suffering from this disease on their arrival here, they were sent to the Quarantine Station.

Cruelty to Animals.

At a meeting of the Council last week concerning the inclusion of "insects" within the scope of the Cruelty to Animals Ordinance, it was noted (says the Singapore Free Press) that a fish and reptile dealer has been fined £2 for keeping 109 frogs in a bowl. They were intended as food for snakes.

A Providential Rescue.

The master of the aa. Gwang Ann on arriving at Kuching from Singapore on the 14th May, reported rescuing seventeen Chinese whom he found in a destitute condition on Victory Island. They had been nine days at sea in an open boat, and were reduced to living upon berries and sea-weed. They are supposed to have run away from Palembang.

Coronation—Postal Arrangements.

During the holidays in honour of His Majesty the King, the Post Office will be open during the hours assisted below: On Thursday, the 20th inst., from 7 till 11.30 a.m., for the despatch of the ordinary German mail.
On Friday and Saturday, the 27th and 28th inst., from 8 till 9 a.m. only.
Correspondence for local delivery may be posted up to 9 a.m. on these days. The night box will be kept open during the time the Office is closed.
The Money Order Office will be entirely closed during the holidays.

Portraits of Legal Luminaries.

A Home Journal says:—"Besides the many historic memories clustering around it, the noble hall of the Parliament House, Edinburgh, has an interest even to the ordinary visitor by reason of the numerous portraits of distinguished advocates and judges which adorn its walls—a collection to which, after the present exhibition of the Royal Academy is over, an important addition will be made by the hanging of Mr Orchardson's portrait of Mr. Asher, K.C., M.P., the Dean of the Faculty of Advocates.
Such things would seem to be better managed in Scotland than with us in England. We are not, indeed, altogether unmindful of the duty of preserving on canvas the lineaments of the sages of the law, but the portraits when painted are usually hidden away in the corridors and Bendish's rooms connected with the halls of the House of Commons, where they are invisible to the public generally, but also to the great ones of the Profession.
No attempt is made to brighten the repulsively bare walls of the central hall of the Law Courts, and, except for the bust of Sir George Jessel, which stands in solitary dignity in one of the corridors of that gloomy building, the thought might well be entertained by anyone visiting our Royal Courts of Justice that lawyers of the present day cared nothing for the great masters who in the past have shed a lustre on the law. This is not as it should be, but it is characteristic of English ways. We, in Hongkong, have managed things better, and the ordinary visitor to the Supreme Court library will now see a good number of our local legal luminaries, past and present, adorning what certainly before were the repulsive bare walls of a still more repulsive building.

PROMPT ACTION

cough will often avert some more serious illness.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Notes by the Way.

Sir Martin Gosselin becomes British Minister at Lisbon.

For two consecutive days last week, the Police Magistrate at Singapore had no cases to try.

Dengue fever is again very prevalent in Singapore, and a number of people are down with it.

The King of Siam bestowed the Order of the Maha Chakri on the Grand Duke Boris of Russia.

It was very hot at Canton yesterday, the thermometer recording over 90 in the shade on the Shamene.

It is understood that Major Dorchill, R.A., who went home from Singapore in the Princess, intends to retire from the Service.

It is understood that the Chinese community of Singapore intend holding a torchlight procession to Government House on the night of Friday, June 27.

The Strait Times of the 12th inst.
says:—We regret to say that Captain F. H. Peyton, of H.M.S. Fedat, has been in the General Hospital since Monday last.

Lieut. Colonel F. W. B. Koo, who has recently returned from Hongkong, has been appointed to take over command of the Army Service Corps in the North-Western District.

"My time," said the multibillionaire,
"is worth twenty pounds a minute."
"Well," answered the friend, casually, "let's go out this afternoon and play two or three thousand pounds worth of golf."

It is reported that field rats are swarming at Kawachi, Wakinosawa and adjacent villages in Shimokita-gun, Aomori-ken, Japan, causing heavy damage to the crops of wheat and barley.

Playing for the Kobe C.C. 1st XI. against the rest of the Club (16 in all), G. C.
Murray (captain) scored 103 not out and captured eight wickets for 46. For the same side, Edwards scored 71 not out and Green 33.

The Long Distance Air-Ship.

It is reported that an accumulator has been invented, perfected by Mr. Edison, which will solve the motor problem for the use of air-ships in long distance travelling on land or sea.

Golf Championship.

Yesterday, Messrs T. S. Forrest and J. H. T. McMurtrie played for the honour of golf champion of Hongkong. Mr. Forrest had held the title for two years, defeating Mr. Burnie in the final tie last year.
Mr. McMurtrie played a strong game, and won rather easily by 8 holes up and 7 to play. The members of the Golf Club were "at home" to their friends during the afternoon.

New Dock at Kobe.

The new graving dock of the Kawasaki Dock Company, Kobe, having been completed, the N.Y.K. steamer Africana-maru (1,908 tons register) was docked on the 2nd inst. An informal celebration of the opening of the new dock took place at the same time, when there were present about fifty invited guests. The dock was commenced in 1895. When full, the water in the dock weighs 28,000 tons, and this can be pumped out in two hours and a half by an engine driven by electricity.

Orchids.

Among the sights at the Botanic Gardens at Buitenzorg is a flowering orchid of the Chamberlainia kind, named after the British Secretary of State for the Colonies. It is described as very beautiful and sweet scented, the coloring being variegated. Another valuable orchid that has flourished there is the Phalaenopsis Suaveolens which is so scarce that there are in Europe only six living plants of this kind—all said to be worth their weight in gold. Another orchid in flower there is the "holy ghost" kind which has on one stem something which might be taken to resemble the figure of a dove.

The "Terrible" and the Coronation

We understand that Captain Percy Scott is preparing a novel feature in connection with the decoration of his ship, H.M.S. Terrible, on Coronation Day. At a given signal, a detachment of the ship's company, dressed in white uniforms, will get over the ship's side, and will form themselves into the design "God Save the King," and each letter will be some twenty feet in size and made up of several men each, the white letters should show up well against the black hull of the vessel.
Should it be necessary—as it probably will be—the cruiser will be moored fore and aft, so that the shall present a full broad-side to the city. In the day time, no artificial aids will be needed to throw the design into relief, but at night a powerful searchlight will be thrown upon the ship's broadside. The hours at which this new departure in naval decorations may be seen will be duly announced elsewhere.

CHANGE OF WATER.

OFTEN brings on diarrhoea. For this reason many experienced travellers carry a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with them to be used in cases of an emergency. This preparation has no equal as a cure for bowel complaints. It can not be obtained while on board the care or steamship, and that is where it is most likely to be needed.
Buy a bottle before leaving home. For sale by all Dealers; WATKINS Ltd., General Agents.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Another Marine Court.

A Marine Court will assemble at the Marine Office to-morrow, the 20th inst., to enquire into the standing of the British s.s. Robert Dickman.

Plague.

For the twenty-four hours to noon yesterday, there were six cases of plague reported in the Colony—all fatal and three found in the street.—There were six cases reported to-day—three fatal.

Hongkong Volunteer Corps.

His Excellency the General Officer Commanding the Troops will present the South African medal to Colour-Sergeant Moorhouse on Saturday, the 21st inst., and the Governor's Shield to "B" Company.
The Commandant hopes that all members of the Corps will attend.

Naval Notes.

The Strait Times of the 12th inst.
says:—H.M.S. Amphitrite, Endymion and Albatross are shortly due, and it is probable that these three vessels will be in Singapore during the Coronation festivities. The Amphitrite relieves the Terrible, but had not left Ceylon at the date of latest news advice; whilst the Albatross was expected to leave Hongkong early in the current month.

The Predatory 'Boy.'

At Singapore on the 10th inst., Mr. Lind missed two gold rings from a drawer in his room; the rings are set with precious stones and their value is $150. He informed the Police, who searched the boys' quarters and found the rings in the possession of one of the boys; two of whom were arrested and charged, one with theft and the other with retaining stolen property.

Decoration for Colonel Johnstone.

The German Emperor has been pleased to confer upon Lieutenant-Colonel Johnstone, O.B., Royal Marines, the Second Class of the Cross of the Royal Crown Order, in recognition of his services in connection with the operations in China.
Colonel Johnstone, with his men, was closely associated with the German contingent in Admiral Seymour's expedition for the relief of Peking in June, 1900.

New Docks at Malta.

Work on the immense new docks at Malta is proceeding apace. The ground has been cleared, the creek drained out, and the actual excavation of the docks commenced. The contractors are experiencing a greater inflow of water than was expected, and three very powerful pumps are kept going. The rock is secured in all directions —like the veins in a block of marble—and through these the water constantly finds its way.

The Marine Club, Singapore.

At the annual general meeting of the Marine Club, held at Singapore on the 11th inst., the following gentlemen were elected as the club officials for the ensuing year: President, Capt. G. W. Hunter; Vice Pres., Mr. A. J. Corbett; Hon. Sec., Mr. J. Allen, and Hon. Treas., Capt. L. E. Snape.
Committee.—Captains T. J. Ralph, Jellison and Slater and Messrs. R. Rich, W. Hepburn, W. Ditcham, W. C. Smaun, J. H. Allison, J. H. Murch, W. Hunter, A. S. Busk, W. Landstein, G. H. Mayo and H. R. Baldwin.

Singapore Garrison.

According to the Strait Times, it is said to be probable that no European battalion of Infantry will be quartered in Singapore after all. This statement is founded on news which is said to have arrived from the War Office to the effect that it is not now thought necessary to send a white battalion home. The news may have reference to many things, but we may imagine it may be presumed that the increase in the local Volunteer force has influenced the War Department in the decision which rumour states has been come to.

London, 17th June, 1902.

The House of Commons will adjourn on the 20th inst. until the 2nd July.

A REVIEW OF TROOPS IN LONDON.

King Edward refrained from attending the review of troops held in London yesterday, but afterwards drove with Queen Alexandra to Windsor.

The review was spoiled somewhat by rain, but it was nevertheless a great military display. Altogether 31,000 troops, with 102 guns, took part in the ceremony.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

London, 17th June, 1902.
The House of Commons will adjourn on the 20th inst. until the 2nd July.

A REVIEW OF TROOPS IN LONDON.

King Edward refrained from attending
the review of troops held in London yesterday, but afterwards drove with Queen Alexandra to Windsor.

The review was spoiled somewhat by
display. Altogether 31,000 troops, with 102 guns, took part in the ceremony.

THE KING'S HEALTH.

King Edward was benefited by his long drive to Windsor, and was much better yesterday evening when he entertained a party at dinner at the Castle.

CORONATION FESTIVITIES.

The Earl of Onslow entertained a party of Coronation nobilities, including Prince Konstantin, at the theatre yesterday evening, and afterwards at supper.

THE SOUTH AFRICA SURRENDERS.

Lord Kitchener reports that the surrenders in the Transvaal and Orange River Colonies are now completed, with a total of 16,520 men and 16,124 rifles. In Cape Colony, there are, so far as is known, only 150 men still to come in.

ROYAL ASCOT.

Queen Alexandra and other Royalties drove to Ascot in a State procession to witness the racing, the weather being brilliant.

King Edward remained at Windsor Castle, but drove in the Park in a closed carriage during the afternoon.

A Pleasant Outlook.

An eminent American geologist, Professor Helprin, is evidently of opinion that we have by no means heard the worst of the terrible Martinique disaster. He believes, indeed, that the disturbances may very possibly result in the complete collapse of the islands. The constant eruptions, he says, mean that a large hole is being made in the bosom of the earth, when it reaches a great size subsidence must follow.
His belief, unfortunately, is not without reason. As he points out, the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean Basin was formed in this manner, when the Andean Mountains broke down, and it is notorious that the crust of the earth is extremely weak in that region. Were Professor Helprin's prophecies to be fulfilled the calamity hardly bears contemplation.

Narrow Escape of a Consul.

Count D'Albans, the French Consul, had a narrow escape from a watery grave on the 10th inst. (says the Strait Times).
The Count has a small launch which he had arranged to meet at Johnston's Pier about 11 o'clock. As, however, the little vessel did not put in an appearance, the Count decided to go in a sampan to Puli Brani, where he expected to find the launch. He embarked in a sampan, and everything went well till the boat neared Tanjong Pagar, when a squall sprang up, and the sampan was swamped. The representative of France went plump down beneath the waves, but he came up again, and after lighting himself by casting out of his pockets sundry dollars, he made for the shore, and after considerable buffeting and much bobbing up and down for some three or four hundred yards, reached the shore in safety, but exhausted. The sight of a European half-drowned in the water, sitting on the shore, was quite enough to excite the curiosity of a number of natives, among whom was a policeman. The representative of the law wanted to arrest the Count because he thought he might be an escaped person of some sort from one of the ships in harbour. While the argument went on, however, the Count managed to clear his throat of the salt water, and with the aid of some Malay and a little backstroke succeeded in convincing the onlookers that he really was the Consul for France, whereupon he was allowed to go. We are glad to hear that Count D'Albans suffered no harm from the immersion, though had he not been a strong swimmer the episode might have had a different termination.

THE BOLD ASSERTION

REMARKING CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

1. It affords quick relief in cases of colic, cholera morbus and pains in the stomach.
2. It never fails to effect a cure in the most severe cases of dysentery and diarrhoea.
3. It is a sure cure for chronic diarrhoea.
4. It can always be depended upon in cases of cholera infantum.
5. It cures epidemic dysentery.
6. It prevents bilious colic.
7. It is prompt and effective in curing all bowel complaints.
8. It never produces bad results.
9. It is pleasant and safe to take.
10. It has saved the lives of more people than any other medicine in the world.
These are bold assertions to make regarding any medicine, but there is abundant proof of every one of the above statements regarding the remedy. Every household should have a bottle at hand. Get it to-day.
It may save a life. For sale by All Dealers; WATKINS Ltd., General Agents.

THE SINKING OF THE 'PAK SHAN.'

Inquiry at Harbour Office.

To-day, a Marine inquiry was held at the Harbour Office into the circumstances connected with the sinking, on the 2nd inst., of the British steamer Pakshan. The inquiry was held at the instance of Captain James George Reid, master of the Pakshan,
